

Curriculum vitae (reduced)

1. Name: Xavier Queipo (literary pseudonym)
2. Time and place of origin: 9 December 1957 in Santiago de Compostela (Galice, Spain)
3. Address e-mail: xavierqueipo@hotmail.com
4. Professional experience: Licence in Biology (1974-1979) and Medicine and Surgery (1975- 1982) in the University of Santiago de Compostela. Invited teacher in the University of Porto (1986-1987) and in the University of Santiago de Compostela (2000-2002). Since 1989 live and works in Brussels. Since 1990 writes and publish, mainly in Galician.
5. Published books:

Publications: “Ártico e outros mares”, short stories, 1990, there; “Ringside”, short stories, 1994. “O Paso do Noroeste”, novel, 1996; “Malaria sentimental”, novel, 1999; “Papaventos”, novel, 2001, “Nos dominios de Leviatán”, poetry, 2001); “O ladrón de esperma”, short stories, 2001); “Os ciclos do bambú”, short stories, 2003; “Glosarios”, poetry, 2004; “O Espello e o Dragón”, childrens literature, 2004; “Pegadas” poetry, 2006; “Dragona”, novel, 2007; “Caderno da Revolución Cultural”, radio chronicles, 2007 and “Saladina”, novel, 2007.

Final note: Author os several translations from French (Maalouf, Hervé Guibert) and English (Conrad, Joyce, David Foster Wallace) to Galician. He received several Galician awards and the Spanish Critics Award in 1991. He has participated in multiple colective books, web pages, blogs and other literary initiatives. All his works concerning marine zoology, biology and marine terminology are not included here in this CV which is strictly literary.